

Our Dolphin, Our Duty: The ICFAI University Sikkim Joins the National Pledge for Conservation

Date: 11th July 2025

As part of the nationwide campaign titled "Our Dolphin – Our Heritage" initiated by the National Museum of Natural History (NMNH), New Delhi, The ICFAI University, Sikkim proudly conducted a Pledge Taking Ceremony to spread awareness and promote the conservation of India's national aquatic animal – the dolphin.

The ceremony was held in the university premises with participation from faculty and Staff members. The event was witnessed in the presence of Ms. Sandhya R. Pant, Deputy Registrar, and Dr. Khina Maya Rimal, Dean Academic who led the program with their inspiring words and strong support for environmental conservation initiatives.

All attendees came together to solemnly take the pledge to protect and conserve dolphins and their habitats, recognizing them as an integral part of India's natural and cultural heritage