Faculty of Law Students Participate in Programme on "Art of Effective Drafting and Pleadings"

16 November 2026

Final-year students of the LL.B., B.A. LL.B. and B.B.A. LL.B. programmes of the Faculty of Law, The ICFAI University, Sikkim, participated in an academic programme on "Art of Effective Drafting and Pleadings", organised by the Sikkim Judicial Academy on 16 November 2026 at Lingding, Sikkim.

The programme was chaired by Advocate Kazi Sangay Thupden, an accomplished legal practitioner and alumnus of The ICFAI University, Sikkim. His association with the University added a special dimension to the occasion, as students had the opportunity to interact with and learn from a legal professional who is also a proud alumnus of their institution.

The programme focused on the importance of effective legal drafting and pleadings in professional practice, highlighting the need for clarity, precision, logical structuring of facts and persuasive legal expression. It offered students valuable practical exposure to the preparation of legal documents and the professional standards expected in judicial proceedings.

The interaction enabled the students to gain a deeper understanding of the practical application of legal principles and the importance of drafting skills in the administration of justice. It also provided an opportunity to connect academic learning with the realities and expectations of the legal profession.

Participation in such programmes forms an integral part of the University's endeavour to promote experiential learning and professional readiness among its students through meaningful engagement with judicial institutions and eminent members of the legal fraternity.

The University appreciates the Sikkim Judicial Academy for providing this valuable learning opportunity to its students.
