

A talk on “Compassionate Leadership in the 21st Century for Global Peace”

Date: 21st March 2025

The Peace Club of The ICFAI University, Sikkim, successfully organized an insightful event titled ‘Compassionate Leadership in the 21st Century for Global Peace’. The event was graced by the esteemed presence of Dr. Khina Maya Rimal, Dean (Academics), along with club heads of the Peace Club, faculty members, and students from various departments.

To extend a warm welcome, Dr. Khina Maya Rimal presented a Khada and a bouquet to the distinguished chief guest and keynote speaker, Shri Venerable Geshe Ngawang Samten, Former Vice Chancellor of the Central Institute for Higher Tibetan Studies, Sarnath, Varanasi, and a Padma Shri Award recipient for his remarkable contributions to education and literature.

During the session, Shri Venerable Geshe Ngawang Samten delivered an inspiring discourse on world peace, compassion, and overcoming fear. He emphasized the significance of human values in building a harmonious and peaceful world. His speech also highlighted the role of compassionate leadership in addressing global challenges, fostering unity, and promoting sustainable peace.

The event concluded with a heartfelt expression of gratitude from The ICFAI University, Sikkim, acknowledging the wisdom and guidance shared by Shri Venerable Geshe Ngawang Samten. The university remains committed to fostering values of peace, compassion, and leadership among its students for the greater good of society.