

A 15 days Faculty Development Program (FDP) has started from the 22nd April for the faculty members at the university campus. The inauguration function was organised by Deptt. of Science and Technology, New Delhi.

According to Program Convener: Mr. Ajit Karki (Assistant Professor) Dept. of Information Technology, The training programme gives major opportunity for exchange ideas between the representatives of the Education sector, industrial community etc.

