Event Description

The World Creativity and Innovation Day 2026 Seminar was successfully conducted by the Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) of The ICFAI University, Sikkim. The session was led by Dr. Vivek Kumar Pathak, Associate Dean, who delivered an insightful seminar focusing on creativity, innovation, and entrepreneurship.

The event commenced with a welcome speech by Sarthak Sharma (IPR Coordinator) and concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Anu Kumari Shah (Social Media Coordinator).

The seminar was supported by a well-structured presentation titled "Igniting Creativity & Innovation for Success", which emphasized developing an entrepreneurial mind-set in today's rapidly evolving world. Dr. Pathak shared his entrepreneurial journey, highlighting real-life ventures across different industries and inspiring participants to explore diverse opportunities and embrace innovation.

The session emphasized that we are currently living in the "Entrepreneurial Age," where creativity, adaptability, and bold thinking are essential for success. The seminar provided a valuable platform for students and faculty members to gain practical insights into start-up development, innovation strategies, and real-world business challenges.

Key Concepts Covered

- Entrepreneurial Mindset: A learnable skill set involving creativity, adaptability, risk-taking, and persistence.

Moments from the Event:

Conclusion

The seminar successfully inspired participants to embrace creativity and innovation as essential tools for personal and professional growth. It reinforced the idea that an entrepreneurial mindset is not innate but can be developed through learning, curiosity, and continuous practice.

The session concluded with a strong message:

“Ignite your creativity, drive innovation, and build your future.”
