Justice Biswanath Somadder interacts with law students at ICFAI University

SE Report

GANGTOK, October 15: Former Sikkim High Court Chief Justice Biswanath Somadder interacted with law students at The ICFAI University, Sikkim on October 14, sharing insights from his judicial experience and stressing the importance of integrity and professional ethics in the legal profession.

The interactive session, organised by the university's Faculty of Law at its auditorium, provided students an opportunity to discuss legal issues and gain practical insights into the application of law and the responsibilities associated with the legal profession, informs a press release.

Emphasising the importance of professional ethics, Somadder advised the students to place integrity above everything else as they embark upon their professional careers. He underscored the importance of honesty, ethical conduct, and commitment to professional responsibilities, reminding the aspiring legal professionals that integrity forms the foundation of public trust and credibility in the legal system. His words offered the students an enduring lesson on the importance of combining legal knowledge and professional competence with strong moral values, the university said.

Vice-chancellor Jagannath Patnaik welcomed Somadder and felicitated him with a traditional khada and a memento as a mark of respect.
