

Legal Literacy and Criminology Awareness talk by Advocate Sarthak Nayak

Date: 07th May 2025

The ICFAI University, Sikkim had the honour of hosting a Legal Awareness talk, featuring a distinguished session by Learned Advocate Sri Sarthak Nayak from the Hon'ble Supreme Court. The event aimed to enlighten our students about the intricacies of criminology and the pivotal role of legal awareness in today's society. Advocate Nayak delivered an insightful presentation, discussing various aspects of criminal law, the importance of legal literacy, and the responsibilities of legal professionals in safeguarding justice.

The session was held in the presence of Dr. Jagannath Patnaik, Vice Chancellor, and Dr. Khina Maya Rimal, Dean Academic, along with the Head of the Department of Law, faculty members, and law students.

The engagement facilitated a constructive dialogue between the students and Advocate Nayak, empowering them to understand the nuances of legal proceedings and the impact of law on individuals and communities. Students were encouraged to recognize their role as future leaders in law and to advocate for justice and equity.

This camp not only enriched our academic environment but also motivated students to actively participate in discussions surrounding legal issues. We express our sincere gratitude to Advocate Sarthak Nayak for his valuable time and insights, and we look forward to more such informative sessions in the future.
