

Expert Talk on “Dynamics of World Politics and India's Foreign Policy”

Date: 2nd May 2025

The School of Liberal Arts at ICFAI University, Sikkim, organized an enlightening Expert Talk on the topic “Dynamics of World Politics and India's Foreign Policy” The event aimed to provide students and faculty with a comprehensive understanding of the rapidly evolving global political landscape and India's strategic positioning in the international arena.

The keynote speaker for the event was Dr. Monish Tourangbam, Director of the Kalinga Institute of Indo-Pacific Studies, an esteemed academician and expert in international relations. The session was graced by the presence of Dr. Khina Maya Rimal, Dean (Academics), Faculty members from the Department of Liberal Arts, along with students from the School of Liberal Arts.

Dr. Tourangbam delivered an insightful lecture that delved into the shifting contours of global power politics, the emerging multipolar world order, and the challenges and opportunities for India in asserting its foreign policy objectives. He highlighted India's evolving role in the Indo-Pacific region, its strategic partnerships, and its diplomatic balancing acts amidst global tensions. The discussion also touched upon India's efforts to strengthen its global presence through economic diplomacy, defence cooperation, and multilateral engagement.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks by a faculty member of the School of Liberal Arts, who expressed gratitude to Dr. Tourangbam for his valuable insights and to all attendees for their active participation.

Overall, the expert talk proved to be a highly informative and thought-provoking session, contributing significantly to the academic enrichment of students and promoting informed discourse on global political affairs.
