

Newly elected ICFAI student council members take oath

SE Report

GANGTOK, February 5: The oath-taking ceremony for newly elected members of the Student Council of ICFAI University Sikkim was organized at its campus here today.

The newly elected student council members took an oath in the presence of the ICFAI vice chancellor, Dr. Jagannath Patnaik, and the faculty fraternity, informs a press release.

Dr. Jagannath Patnaik administered the oath, urging the new council members to serve with integrity, dedication, and a spirit of inclusivity.

“The Student Council is the voice of our students and a vital bridge between the administration and the student body,” said Dr. Patnaik.

“I am confident that this dynamic team will contribute positively to campus life, organize meaningful events, and uphold the values of responsibility and excellence that define our institution,” he added.

The oath-taking ceremony was attended by faculty members, staff, and enthusiastic students.

The newly sworn-in council is poised to drive initiatives that enhance student welfare, cultural activities, and overall campus engagement, the release mentions.
