ICFAI University Sikkim cadet Mahesh Dorjee receives Governor's Gold Medal for NCC Excellence

SE Report

GANGTOK, July 15: Cadet Mahesh Dorjee of The ICFAI University, Sikkim, has been conferred the prestigious Governor's Gold Medal in recognition of his outstanding performance in the National Cadet Corps (NCC).

The award was presented during the Governor's NCC Medal Award Ceremony held at Ashirvad Hall, Lok Bhavan, here on July 14, informs a press release.

Cadet Mahesh Dorjee received the coveted honour for his exemplary discipline, leadership qualities and dedicated service in the NCC. The achievement reflects his commitment to excellence and the values of integrity and leadership promoted by the University.

The award was presented by the Governor Om Prakash Mathur, who attended the ceremony as the chief guest.

Education, Sports and Youth Affairs minister Raju Basnet, was the special guest, while Major General A.P.S. Chahal, Additional Director General, NCC, West Bengal and Sikkim Directorate, attended as the key dignitary.

The ceremony was jointly organised by the Education Department in association with the Group Headquarters NCC, Darjeeling and Sikkim, to honour outstanding NCC cadets from across the State.

A total of 43 cadets from various schools and colleges were felicitated with 18 Gold Medals, 15 Silver Medals and 10 Bronze Medals.

The Governor's Award of Excellence was also presented to Associate NCC Officer (ANO) Lieutenant Manoj Kumar Pradhan for his exceptional contribution to NCC activities.

Congratulating Cadet Mahesh Dorjee, vice chancellor of The ICFAI University, Sikkim, Dr. Jagannath Patnaik, described the honour as a matter of immense pride for the University.

He said the achievement reflects the institution's commitment to nurturing disciplined, socially responsible and capable young leaders.

Registrar Dr. Rohit Rathi also congratulated the cadet and commended his dedication and perseverance, expressing confidence that the achievement would inspire other students and NCC cadets to strive for excellence in leadership, discipline and service to the nation.

The University extended its best wishes to Cadet Mahesh Dorjee for his future endeavours and reaffirmed its commitment to promoting holistic education by encouraging students to excel in academics, leadership, community service and nation-building initiatives through platforms such as the NCC, the release mentions.
