Celebration of Constitution Day 2026

Date: 26 November 2026

The Faculty of Law, The ICFAI University Sikkim, celebrated Constitution Day on 26 November 2026 at the University Auditorium to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India and promote awareness of its fundamental principles, constitutional values, rights and duties among students.

The programme commenced with the ceremonial lighting of the diya by the Academic Dean, Dr. Vivek Pathak, in tribute to Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, the principal architect of the Indian Constitution. This was followed by a welcome address by Ms. Gungun Sharma, BA LL.B., IX Semester.

The celebration featured an Inter-Departmental Speech Competition and an Open Quiz Competition, providing students with an engaging platform to demonstrate their knowledge of the Constitution and reflect on its relevance in contemporary society. The speech competition was adjudicated by Assistant Professor Mr. P. K. Rai, Assistant Professor Dr. Rinchen Tamang and Assistant Professor Dr. Shivani Rai.

Ms. Karishma Kumari Prasad, BBA, V Semester, representing the Faculty of Management and Commerce, secured first position in the speech competition. Her presentation on "The Constitution in the Age of AI: Who Protects Our Rights in a Digital World?" explored the importance of constitutional protections and fundamental rights in an increasingly technology-driven world.

The programme was coordinated by Dr. Numa Limboo and Dr. Prasanata Chhetri, with the assistance of students from BA LL.B. IX Semester. Ms. Chunry Tamin served as the Master of Ceremonies, while Mr. Dev Prayag, BA LL.B., IX Semester, delivered the vote of thanks.

Students from all five faculties of the University participated enthusiastically, including the Faculty of Management and Commerce, Faculty of Liberal Arts, Faculty of Law, Faculty of Science and Technology, and Faculty of Hotel and Tourism Management.

The celebration provided an opportunity for students across disciplines to engage with the constitutional ideals of justice, liberty, equality and fraternity. It reaffirmed the University's commitment to promoting constitutional literacy, democratic values and responsible citizenship among its students.
