

BLOOD DONATION CAMP

Sikkim, November 22, 2023 — The ICFai University Sikkim, in collaboration with the Sikkim Arunachal Student Union (SASU) and Manipal Blood Bank, proudly organized a volunteer blood donation camp at The ICFai University, Sikkim on November 22, 2023. The theme for the event, "Give Blood Save Life," aimed to inspire a community of compassionate donors to contribute to this life-saving cause.

The event was a resounding success, with a total of 124 volunteers enthusiastically participating in the blood donation camp. The collective efforts resulted in the successful collection of 51 units of blood. The strong turnout underscored the commitment of the university community and its partners to making a positive impact on the well-being of others.

This collaborative initiative not only reinforced the spirit of altruism but also highlighted the importance of voluntary blood donation in saving lives. The ICFai University Sikkim extends its gratitude to the Sikkim Arunachal Student Union and Manipal Blood Bank for their invaluable support in making this event a success.

The university remains dedicated to fostering a sense of social responsibility and community engagement, and events like these exemplify its commitment to making a meaningful contribution to the welfare of society.
