

ICFAI UNIVERSITY SIKKIM RECOGNIZES LONG-STANDING EMPLOYEES AND STUDENT INTERNS FOR THEIR EXTRAORDINARY SERVICE AND CONTRIBUTION

The ICFAI University, Sikkim took great pride and honor in acknowledging the exceptional dedication and commitment demonstrated by its long-serving employees and student interns who played a pivotal role in the institutional development of the university. In recognition of their remarkable service, the university held a special event to felicitate and award certificates to those who completed more than 10 years of service, as well as commend the interns who significantly contributed to the growth and progress of the institution.

The ceremony, held in the esteemed presence of Hon'ble Chancellor Prof ORS Rao and Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, showcased the zeal and enthusiasm displayed by the students towards the development of the university and fostering a sense of togetherness, or "apnapan". The event commenced with a warm welcome, followed by a heartfelt speech from the Hon'ble Chancellor, expressing his profound appreciation for the dedication and trust exhibited by the award recipients.

The certificates were personally presented by the esteemed Hon'ble Chancellor and Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, providing an opportunity to not only recognize the exemplary efforts, but also to extend gratitude for the unwavering faith and commitment these individuals have demonstrated towards the growth of the institution.

The event was not only a celebration of their accomplishments but also a reaffirmation that ICFAI University Sikkim values and acknowledges the relentless efforts of its employees and interns, recognizing them as an integral part of the university's success story.
