

THE ICFAI UNIVERSITY, SIKKIM STUDENTS' PARTICIPATION IN THE STATE LEVEL ELOCUTION CHAMPIONSHIP-2024

Date: 12th November 2024

On 11th November 2024, The ICFAI University, Sikkim, participated in the prestigious 2024 State Level Elocution Championship, held at Sir TNSSS, Development Area, Gangtok. This competition, organized by The Accelerator in collaboration with the HRDD, Government of Sikkim, provided a platform for Senior Secondary students and University Students to showcase their oratory skills on topics that promote intellectual discourse and critical thinking.

The event's theme, "Championship Day," focused on the topic: "How specific career paths could contribute to job creation, sustainable practices, and economic development in Sikkim?" This thought-provoking subject encouraged students to explore the intersection of career choices with sustainability and economic growth, particularly in the context of Sikkim's unique socio-economic landscape.

The semi-final rounds were held across various districts in Sikkim, including North Sikkim, East Sikkim, South Sikkim, and West Sikkim, before the grand finals on November 11, 2024, at Gangtok. This competition brought together talented students from across the state, creating a platform for healthy competition and mutual learning.

The participation of ICFAI University students not only reflected their academic rigor but also their commitment to engaging in discussions that matter to their community.
