ICFAI University vice chancellor meets President Kovind

SE. Report

GANGTOK, May 8: The vice-chancellor of ICFAI University, Sikkim, Dr Jagannath Prasad, recently called on President of India Ram Nath Kovind and apprised him about the development of youth, particularly in the North East.

The President appreciated the ICFAI University's 'North East manifesto for youth' wherein was explained, as to how the programme will be implemented in order to achieve the set standards by the year 2020, inferring a great scheme.

The scheme adds the vice-chancellor, who was recently awarded the Dr Abul Kalam Educational Excellence Award 2018 instituted by Dr Abul Kalam Research Institute, Coimbatore – for his contribution towards higher education.
