

ICFAI University students in national moot court competition

SE Report

GANGTOK, August 31: Three students from ICFAI University, Sikkim participated in the recently concluded 34th All India Inter-University National Moot Court Competition at Pune.

This is the second time the ICFAI Law School has participated in the prestigious event organized by the Bar Council of India.

Kazi Sangay Thupden and

Varun Pradhan of 5th semester, and Lila Prasad Sharma of 5th semester represented ICFAI University Sikkim at the competition.

Out of the 1,300 law colleges in India, only 60 teams were shortlisted to compete.

New range officer welcomed

After threats, triple talaq petition Jahan's children go missing in W

Shimla, Aug 31: When Ujjay Singh's wife Jahan was threatened with possible divorce proceedings in Punjab, Jahan had recently withdrawn her petition for divorce and her children were already in the hands of her ex-husband. It is believed that Jahan's children were kept in a safe place until the divorce was finalized.

Threatened with possible divorce proceedings, Jahan had recently withdrawn her petition for divorce and her children were already in the hands of her ex-husband. It is believed that Jahan's children were kept in a safe place until the divorce was finalized.

Threatened with possible divorce proceedings, Jahan had recently withdrawn her petition for divorce and her children were already in the hands of her ex-husband. It is believed that Jahan's children were kept in a safe place until the divorce was finalized.

ICFAI students take part in 34th National Moot Court Competition

Gangtok, Aug 31: Three students from ICFAI University, Sikkim participated in the recently concluded 34th All India Inter-University National Moot Court Competition at Pune. This is the second time the ICFAI Law School has participated in the prestigious event organized by the Bar Council of India.

Out of the 1,300 law colleges in India, only 60 teams were shortlisted to compete in the competition of which ICFAI Law School, Sikkim was one. This was the second time ICFAI Law School, Sikkim had participated in the prestigious competition.

Minister NK S... WSTS co-ordina

Gangtok, Aug 31: A co-ordination meeting of West Sikkim Women's Society (WSTS) under the chairmanship of Minister, D.D. Sarda, was held at a local hotel here on Wednesday. The meeting was attended by various members of the society.

Co-ordination meeting of West Sikkim Women's Society (WSTS) under the chairmanship of Minister, D.D. Sarda, was held at a local hotel here on Wednesday. The meeting was attended by various members of the society.

SBI RSETI training programme on dairy farming

Gangtok, Aug 31: The Dairy Training Programme organized by SBI RSETI, Gangtok, Sikkim, was held here on Wednesday. The programme was attended by various farmers from the region.

During the training programme, the participants were provided with information on various aspects of dairy farming, including animal health and feed management.

Drug abuse, crime against

Narada sting: C